

AdvanLED Spot Light Series (MR-16)

AdvanLED MR16 Spotlight is a LED high output MR 16 Bi-Pin base lamp. It is equivalent to a 35 watt halogen lamp but uses up to 80% less energy. It is low heat generation, durability over incandescent and halogen bulbs. The MR16 Spotlights are designed for track lighting and spot lighting application powered by low voltage supplies.

AdvanLED MR-16 Spot Light is available in two colour options, white or warm white to suit your personal indoor application.

Features

- SMD LED Technology ensure the operations of >35,000 hours
- Generate little heat and suitable for temperature sensitive areas
- Optimized heat sink for longer life time and lumen maintenance
- Provide Easy White technology which has consistence colour temperature

